RAILROADS OF NATION MAY BE OPERATED BY THE GOVERNMENT

BOAT HITS MINE.
London, March 16.—A British torpedo boat destroyer of an old type struck a mine in the English Channel yesterday. All the officers were saved. One man was killed and twenty-eight sailors are missing. It is presumed these men were drowned.

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS IS SLATED TO COMMAND ALL RUSSIAN ARMIES

President Holds Conference With Cabinet Presumably on Question of Federal Operation of Railways—Another Joint Conference May be Called—Both Sides Marking Time.

GOVERNOR COX WILL TAKE OVER OHIO ROADS AND OPERATE IF NECESSARY

Washington, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—The Council of National Defense, including several Cabinet members, at a meeting here today took up the threatened nation-wide strike, and it was indicated that some action looking to a prevention of the strike might be taken.

During the meeting, an unsuccessful effort was made to reach Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, and a member of the advisory committee of the council.

The council discussed the threatened strike because of its relation to national defense at a time when the country is threatened with war. Exactly what action can be taken by the council was not disclosed. Cabinet members who are on the Council of National Defense would not discuss the subject, and declare that the situation was not finally disposed of.

After the Cabinet had been in session for fifteen minutes, Secretary Wilson left, saying that Secretary Baker would issue a statement shortly on the railroad strike situation.

Hope was expressed that the strike, paralyzing the commerce of the country, could be averted.

Secretary Wilson said that the action decided upon met with his entire approval.

This action was, to have Secretaries Wilson and Lane and Daniel Willard and Samuel Gompers, members of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense, confer at once with representatives of both sides.

This action was expected by the President and his advisors to avert the strike.

Secretary Baker announced after the Cabinet meeting that the Council of National Defense, with the approval of President Wilson, had decided upon this step.

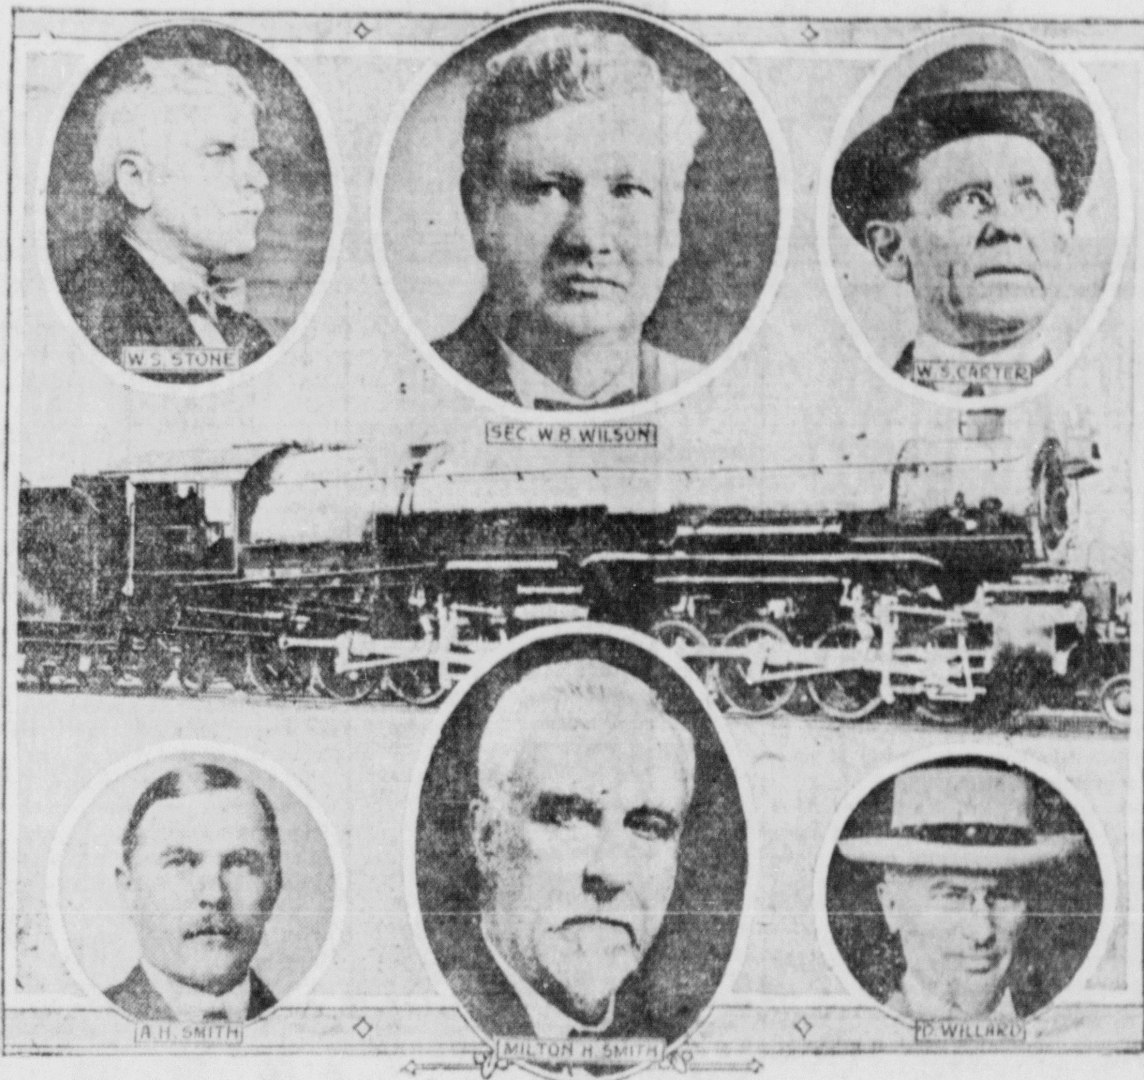

Arrangements for conferences with representatives of the two sides will be made at once.

The mediators, speaking for President Wilson, will ask the brotherhoods and the railroads to postpone the strike, if they cannot avert it, on the ground of national emergency.

The mediators planned to leave for New York immediately to begin conferences.

New York, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Word was received by the National Conference Committee of Railways this afternoon that President Wilson had called the Cabinet meeting to get advice on the question of running the railroads on the basis of military necessity.

LABOR LEADERS AND ROAD PRESIDENTS WHO FIGURE IN RAILROAD STRIKE NEWS

Prominent men on both sides in the threatened railroad tieup are depicted here. Warren S. Stone, who is grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Secretary of Labor Wilson who may be called upon to find a way to reconcile the differences between the railroad men and their employers; W. S. Carter, who is president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; Alfred H. Smith, who is president of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad; Milton H. Smith, who is president of the Louisville and Nashville; Daniel Willard, who is president of the Baltimore and Ohio and also chairman of the advisory committee of the national defense council. The railroad workers demand the putting into effect of the eight hour day.

COX READY FOR ANY EMERGENCY IN DEALING WITH RAILROAD STRIKE

Columbus, Ohio, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Governor Cox today declared the State of Ohio was ready for any emergency in connection with the threatened railroad strike, and reiterated his statement of last night that "if it becomes necessary to avert a food famine, or to give the President of the United States that co-operation in a crisis which he deserves, we will make martial law of the state, take over the railroads and run them."

The governor said today: "The railroads of Ohio are the substance of our people. While they are under corporate direction, still they grew from the energy and resource of the state, deriving their present condition from the activities of the communities through which they pass."

"In an emergency such as this, we are not looking for precedent. The law of human heart becomes the law of the land."

"Martial law displaces all other law. I have every confidence that when the call is made of our citizenship the response will be satisfactory."

EMPLOYEES OF MANY ROADS WILL REFUSE TO OBEY STRIKE ORDERS

New York, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—As one of the first steps to deal with what would be disorganization of railroad transportation caused by the railroad strike, the National Conference Committee of Railroad Managers has informed the individual railroads that an embargo on all perishable freight is advisable.

Reports from various parts of the country by the railway managers indicate the declared organized withdrawal of some of the railroad employees from the brotherhoods' agreement to strike.

The managers were informed that the engineers of the Santa Fe System had wired their grand chiefs that they had withdrawn and would refuse to obey the strike order.

The conductors and engineers on the St. Louis & Southwestern have withdrawn, according to word reaching the managers, and on the Illinois Central the firemen have announced their intention to withdraw.

Washington, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—President Wilson is expected to make his first move to prevent the threatened railway strike today.

The President had cancelled a regular Cabinet meeting when he got reports from the conferences in New York, and then he suddenly summoned the members this afternoon.

A general impression prevails in official circles that the President, before going further, will appeal to both railroads and men not to plunge the country into a railway strike at this critical juncture of international affairs.

New York, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Reports from Kansas City and other points in the West that some of the employees were unwilling to obey a strike call were met by a statement by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, that the leaders expected at least one in twelve to refuse to strike.

"Don't forget history says our Savior found one Judas among the twelve he selected," Mr. Lee said.

"We therefore do not hope to beat his record, and we look for at least one in twelve."

New York, March 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Both sides in the threatened railroad strike controversy expressed a willingness today to hold further joint conferences, although the situation this morning was devoid of any suggestion that a compromise would be reached that would avert a nation-wide transportation tie-up.

Indications were, unofficially, that both the railroad managers and the brotherhood chiefs were marking time, pending any possible action by President Wilson, and that each group was prepared to respond to overtures from the other side.

ABDICATION NOT IN EFFECT

(Associated Press Cable)
London, March 16.—The abdication of Emperor Nicholas and the appointment of Grand Duke Michael as Regent has not yet been carried into effect, though it has been decided upon by the executive powers. Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced today in the House of Commons.

TREATY IS WITHDRAWN

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 16.—The treaty with Colombia to pay $25,000,000 for the partition of Panama was withdrawn from the Senate today on motion of Chairman Stone of the Foreign Relations Committee and will not be acted upon the present special Senate session.

Senator Stone's action was taken to foreshadow further diplomatic negotiations with Colombia for a new treaty that would not be received with such strong objection.

An effort to frame a more acceptable treaty is expected before the Congress which convenes in special session April 16 has adjourned.

TURKS STILL RETREATING

(Associated Press Cable)
London, March 16.—A portion of the town of Bakubah, on the right bank of the Djalra river about 30 miles northeast of Bagdad, has been occupied by the British. It was announced in a report received today from General Maude, in command of the British Tigris forces.

The Turks continue to fall back on the right bank of the Tigris.

SENATE ADJOURNS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 16.—The special Senate session which began March 5 adjourned at 2:30 p. m. today sine die.

EMPLOYEES WILL REFUSE TO STRIKE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, March 16.—Reports declared to have been received from roads in the East and South were that the engineers and conductors did not consider the grand chiefs had authority to call out the men without first submitting the strike question to a new vote.

NO OFFICIAL WORD OF REVOLUTION

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 16.—No official advice on the situation in Russia had reached either the Russian Embassy or the British Embassy here today.

Disorganization at Petrograd was believed to be the cause of the Russian Foreign Office's failure to inform its Embassy here.

It is believed no change will be made in the Russian diplomatic representation here or at other foreign capitals.

OIL BARON NOW WITHOUT A PENNY

(Associated Press Cable)
Tokio March 15.—Amand de Meyer and family have arrived in Tokio, refugees from Bucharest. Mr. Meyer was president of a big oil refining company and now he says he is penniless. His factory and his house were both consumed by fire just before the arrival of the Germans and he and wife and children with thousands of others fled homeless from the capital before the oncoming enemy.

Idol of Russian Army and Master Strategist To Become Commander-in-Chief of Slavs—New Government Seeks Absolute Elimination of Emperor Nicholas and Grand Duke Michael.

FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS AND FULL POLITICAL AMNESTY FEATURE REGIME

Grand Duke Nicholas, idol of the Russian army and ranked as Russia's master strategist, looms up as the big military figure of the hour in the Empire, which has just witnessed a successful and almost bloodless revolution and the abdication of its Emperor.

The relinquishment of the throne by Nicholas II automatically deprived him of his rank as commander in chief of the Russian armies.

The heir to the throne is an infant, and Grand Duke Michael, named as Regent, while a soldier of repute, is not of a commanding military experience.

Thus the Nation, the Petrograd dispatches indicate, is turning to its most tried and trusted military leader.

Grand Duke Nicholas is reported to have arrived at the capital, and the probability is that he will take command of the troops.

Of the complete success of the revolutionary movement, in which the lead was taken by the Duma, there seems no doubt.

While there have been few advices received as to the attitude of the army at the front, such news as has been received indicates that the military, with the exception of reactionaries among the officers, together with all the popular forces of the Empire, is backing the new Government.

The civil forces of the Nation are co-operating with the Government most heartily in restoring normality in the life of the Empire.

The Duma, which is the chief factor in shaping the course of the new regime, and the Zemstvo Council are reported co-operating successfully in straightening out the various tangles that have resulted from the momentous change in Government control.

The food problem is being attacked, and the people themselves seem to be exercising their own authority to repress any elements of the population that might be inclined to indulge in excesses.

Petrograd, Thursday, March 15, via London, March 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—The old regime of Conservatives has been supplanted by a Government of Liberals.

M. Kerenski, the new Minister of Justice, is a Socialist. He accepted the portfolio on the stipulation that there should be absolute freedom of speech and of press, and full political amnesty.

The Cabinet has been chosen exclusively from present and past members of the Duma.

Professor Paul Milukoff, the new Foreign Minister, informed the Associated Press that the new regime was determined on the elimination of Emperor Nicholas and the regency of Grand Duke Michael.

"We shall not change these demands," he said. "We shall have this or fail. We can accept nothing else."

The following additional Cabinet members have been chosen: Minister of Trade and Commerce, A. I. Konovoff; Prosecutor General of the Holy Synod, M. Lvoff. Price Lvoff, the new Premier, is President of the Central Committee of all Russian Zemstvo unions.

Petrograd, via London, March 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Council of Nobility already has held special meetings in fifteen provinces and endorsed the new revolutionary Government.

BURN POLICE RECORDS; HUNT FOR GERMANS

(Associated Press Cable)
London, March 16.—Practically the entire archives of the Russian secret police were burned by the revolutionists, according to a Times dispatch from Petrograd.

When the building in which the notorious Third Section had its headquarters was captured, the crowds sacked the offices, blasted safes, wrecked strong boxes, and rushed into the streets carrying masses of documents, which were quickly converted into blazing bonfires. Not all the documents, however, were destroyed.

The new Government has obtained possession of lists of spies and informers, who are being fast run to earth.

Although the populace is strongly disposed to wreak summary vengeance on those who incurred their hate in the days of the old regime, the prisoners are safe once they are under the protection of the soldiers and are marched through the streets to the Duma, or to the district sections of the provisional government.

The strongest anti-German feeling animates the population, and all highly placed personages suspected of

NEW REGIME IS NOT RECOGNIZED

(Associated Press Cable)
London, March 16.—Great Britain had not officially recognized the new Russian Government at the hour the House of Commons met today.

Chancellor Bonar Law, replying to a question whether the House would send a message of sympathy to the Duma and what steps were being taken to recognize the new Government, replied:

"The Honorable Members may feel no anxiety, but I think they recognize that we must see the situation a little more clearly."

Mr. Law added that telegrams were being received hourly from Petrograd. He promised a statement on the situation in Russia on the conclusion of the business of the House.

MAY APPEAL TO COUNTRY

London, March 16.—In discussing the Irish situation in the House of Commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, declared the attitude of the Nationalists might compel an appeal to the country, on the ground that the Nationalists were unwilling to permit the government to get on with the war.

INTEREST IS INCREASING

Interest in promoting the Sherman-Sheridan Highway, which was projected by the Cincinnati Automobile Club, is increasing rapidly in this city and county as the importance of being on a main highway is brought out by those directly interested in obtaining the highway.

As a result of the interest shown it is expected that a large crowd of business men and property owners along the right of way proposed through this county—the Wilmington and Circleville pikes, will be in attendance.

Thomas Morgan, president of the Cincinnati Auto Club, has made it plain that the only thing asked is for a serviceable road, and that it be maintained in proper manner. A paved road is not necessary, and the only portion which would require further improvement that that already planned is the road between this city and New Holland.

It is announced that two routes are being considered, and that one of them passes through Dayton, Springfield, Columbus and thence eastward.

If the main highway passes through this city it will mean that Washington will be the most important hub for the highway outside of Cincinnati, as a branch from this city to Columbus also is contemplated, to connect with the Lincoln highway in northern Ohio so that the two highways would converge at this point, and Washington C. H. would be placed on the map in a most indelible manner.

The next conference will be held in this city Saturday afternoon March 24th, and will be in the nature of a public meeting at Memorial Hall.

At the noonday session of the Dutch Treat Club, Thursday, the matter was discussed at some length, and committees named to look after various phases of the proposal.

MOTOR TRUCKS ARE IN DEMAND IN THIS CITY

With the prospect of a tie-up of the railroads for several days, business firms generally are turning their attention to solving the transportation problem as much as possible, and many have placed orders for motor truck service wherever possible, as a means of handling goods which otherwise would be sent by freight in the surrounding territory.

If the strike comes and lasts any length of time, it is expected every available motor truck will be kept busy.

Some of the business men have obtained options on local trucks for certain freight hauling, providing the highways will permit of their use.

PENNSY EMPLOYEES WILL NOT WALK OUT

That the Pennsylvania railroad employees have refused to walk out in the brotherhood strike called for Saturday evening, but will demand another vote before doing so, is the announcement current in local railroad circles Friday morning, and if such is the case it is expected that the proposed strike may prove a fiasco in many places.

It is expected, according to "sand-house" talk, that other railroad employees also will refuse to strike until another vote is held.

FIND SOLDIER WOULD REALLY SHOOT TO KILL

Was it a real, sure-enough burglar or a practical joke?

This is the question that is being asked as result of an exciting incident occurring on the outskirts of the city about nine o'clock Thursday night, in which a member of Company M played a prominent part.

One story is that the soldier was employed as nightwatchman and some of his friends decided to pull a joke upon him. Another story is that there was no joke to the affair and that it was stern reality.

Anyway about nine o'clock the nightwatchman was startled by a noise about the premises, and after a command to half, promptly opened fire with a shot gun.

One of the patrolmen was summoned, but failed to find a trace of Mr. Burglar.

However on Friday morning there was blood or red paint very much in evidence where the "burglar" is supposed to have been standing when the shot was fired.

SUGGESTION TO WOMEN

Who are "Just Ready to Drop."

When you are "just ready to drop" when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. Maxwell did. She says:

"I keep house for my little family of three, and became completely run-down. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep; finally I was unable to do my housework. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and improved rapidly. I toned up my system. I regained my strength, am no longer nervous, sleep well, and do all my housework." Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Montgomery, Ala.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength-creating tonics.

So many letters like the above are continually coming to our attention, that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction.

A Possible Solution

In the Herald of Monday March 5th attention was directed, in an editorial headed "The Farmer's Problem" to the shortage of farm labor in Ohio.

Unfortunately the statements of fact were true. There is a shortage of labor in Ohio farming sections and that shortage is already a serious handicap to the farmer which results in higher prices to the consumer and prevents the farmers from getting anything approaching a capacity production from the fertile lands of Ohio.

But what practical methods have the Ohio farmers adopted, or what plan are they even agitating, to relieve a condition which means heavy loss to them and to the thousands who rely upon the farm for the necessities of life?

While the writer has never been fortunate enough to own an Ohio farm and therefore, is lacking in that practical experience which would enable him to qualify as an expert, yet I feel that a few suggestions, even from the non-expert, may not be harmful.

The tide of emigration is toward the west. The farmers, of the eastern, southern and middle west accept that as a fact and it is a fact. But yet, I believe, an organized effort would turn, at least, a considerable portion of that tide back, as far any way as those "western states" that lie east of the Mississippi river.

The west, in this country, does not offer the reward that it did twenty, or even ten, years ago but that great body of farm laborers who leave for new fields to better their condition in life—in search of the end of the rainbow of promise—have not found that out yet and most of them will only find out their mistake when bitter adversity has anchored them in the west.

Then too late for their own good and too late for the good of the farmers in the great corn belt states they will find that the end of the rainbow is in the east and not in the west.

Unless the farmers, who can offer much better opportunity to the farm laborer than the great west, organize and make it their business to halt and turn north and east a part of that steady stream of humanity which keeps its face to the setting sun instead of toward the rising sun, that disastrous flood is certain to keep on running.

As an instance of the unreasoning rush westward and how easily, it seems to me, it could be checked to advantage of all concerned;

I was seated in the station at Memphis, a week or more ago, watching the thousands, coming and going—always an interesting study which the larger terminal stations afford—when a timid young man clad in shabby clothing, with all his earthly belongings, aside from the clothes on his back, contained in a package which he carried, seated himself near to me.

He was bound for western Arkansas "to work" on a farm. He didn't know whose farm. He wasn't certain he could get work and he only knew farm work. He was certain that, at best, he could only get work during planting and harvest seasons. If he could get work for four months a year he would consider himself fortunate. He had heard work on the farm could be obtained in western Arkansas.

"Young man go west" was firmly fixed in his mind. He was leaving Mississippi to better his conditions and all he knew was to "go west". I told him of the opportunities Ohio offered. He was amazed and incredulous. He couldn't believe that there was any place where an honest, sober, hard working farm hand could get work the year round.

He was poor—poor as poverty—but possessed the honesty and simplicity which guarantees response to intelligent direction.

He was one of thousands leaving Mississippi and the southern states for the west and for less opportunity and advantage than the east, right now affords.

I advised him to quit following the crowd and go in the other direction to seek work. My advice came too late. His savings were all invested in a railroad ticket to the west.

Had an organization of Ohio farmers sent emissaries into Mississippi and other southern states to present their claims hundreds of good farm hands might right now be purchasing tickets to points in our own state to their own and the farmers' advantage. Ohio farmers could very easily secure some of this labor if they would go about it in an adetermined way.

There is a tremendous exodus of "whites" now on in the southern states and the east can secure a part of it if it will go about it.

The south is now entering upon a second reconstruction period. This time it is with reference to its agriculture. The Boll Weevil has done for the cotton growing in the south at least temporarily. Northerners are going south to make the soil produce more, and in that period of time which must elapse while the northerners are taking hold and the southerners learning to do something besides planting cotton the poor white farm hands must leave for some place where there is more work. They have no surplus to tide them over the interim. The east can offer the farm laborer, who must leave the south, more work, easier work, and better advantages than the west.

Will it do it?

If so the farm labor problem in the corn belt states may be solved or if not solved permanently, it seems to me, much of the loss which attends present conditions may be averted. The possibilities offered are certainly worthy of investigation.

Poetry For Today

MAKE THIS A DAY.
Make this a day.
There is no gain in brooding over days to come;
The message of today is plain.
The future's lips are ever dumb.
The work of yesterday is gone—
For good or ill, let come what may;
But now we face another dawn:
Make this a day.

Though yesterday we failed to see
The urging hand and earnest face
That men call Opportunity,
We fail to know the time or place
For some great deed, what need to fret?
The dawn comes up a silvery grey;
The golden moments must be met:
Make this a day.

This day is yours; your work is yours;
The odds are not who pays your hire;
The things accomplished—that endure,
If it be what the days require.
He who takes up his daily round,
As one new-armoured for the fray,
Tomorrow steps on solid ground:
Make this a day.

—The Talisman.

HIGHLAND COUNTY COW HAS RECORD

Hillsboro, O., March 16.—William Fleming who has charge of the cow testing work of the Highland county improvement association reports that a cow belonging to W. A. Charles of New Market township, made a daily record of 46.2 pounds of milk, testing 5.9 per cent butter fat. At this rate her monthly rate will be 145 gallons of milk and 73.5 pounds of butter fat. If this cow continues to keep up her present pace, and all other cows can be induced to go into competition with her, the high cost of living problem is solved.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Mrs. Sherman Murry pleasantly entertained the "500" club Thursday afternoon. A daintily served lunch followed a spirited game.

Relatives and friends of this city will be interested to learn of the engagement of Mr. Melville F. Hegler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wert Hegler, of Peoria, Ill., to Miss Helen Nash, of Chicago.

Mr. Hegler, who is in the insurance business, is now located in Chicago.

Local interest in O. S. U. students center this week in a debate put on by the Philomathean Society of the O. S. U., in which Miss Lois Lampe, sophomore and Miss Ruth M. Smith, Junior both Washington C. H. students participated.

The subject debated was resolved "That Standardized Dress be Adopted by Girls of the University."

Miss Lampe argued on the affirmative, and Miss Smith the negative.

The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

The Ohio State Journal in speaking of the debate says in part:

"The affirmative made an immediate hit with the judges by this opening sentence: 'September Morn is the most popular calendar subject in the country by her standardized dress.'"

Then a scathing tirade was delivered against the unstandardized. Some of the arguments were:

"If there had been standardized dress in the garden of Eden, Adam need not have gone on an apple diet. If Delilah had standardized herself, Sampson could have had as much hair as Rab Tagore."

"What is making Hawaii so popular? Not the ukulele, nor the pineapple. But the standardized shredded wheat, low-necked and high-knee effects turned out by Yaki-kee, being Hawaiian for Lucille."

The negative painted a dismal picture of the future, if standardized dress were adopted, leading up to the point where standardized husbands will be the rage.

"Just think," they said, "a man who'll come home on standard time, a husband whose whereabouts you'll know every minute of the day and night. What will be the fun of marriage?"

"Time out was taken here to recover from the awful prospect."

"Attacking the Delilah argument, the negative declared hair mattresses and Irene Castle curls would never have been discovered but for Sampson's fall."

The Browning Club will entertain all the club women of the city at the High School Auditorium next Tuesday night when Mr. Ernest S. Jaros, of Columbus, will deliver his unique and delightful lecture on "Chapters in the Story of Women's Dress" the lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon slides.

After the lecture an informal reception will be held.

The affair will be quite unusual and the club women of the city fully appreciate the courtesy of the Browning club.

The fine oldhomestead on the Waterloo pike was the scene of a delightful gathering Thursday night, in honor of the birthday of Mr. Peasley Stokesbury.

Thirty-five neighbors and friends gathered and showered congratulations upon the much surprised host.

The evening was a merry one, with refreshments served at its close.

Mr. Chas. Barnett promoted the affair assisted by Mrs. Stokesbury.

CZAR ABDICATES LIBERALS RULING

Petrograd, March 16.—Emperor Nicholas has abdicated and Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, his brother, has become regent.

After three days of battle between troops supporting it and those opposed to it, a revolution was successfully effected. The casualties were about 500.

It is reported that M. Protopopoff, minister of the interior, has been killed. The royal palace was besieged by revolutionary troops. The emperor is at the front.

The garrison at Kharkov has formally joined the revolution and is supporting the provisional government.

Kharkov is the capital of the province of the same name. It is 480 miles south of Moscow and has a population of about 200,000.

Strikes in sympathy with the movement have been called in factories and on the streetcar lines.

In the three days of fighting the troops opposed to the revolution were assisted by the police. The duma joined hands with the revolution on being dissolved by the emperor and declared that the existing government had been overthrown. The duma resumed its sittings after it had sent the notification to the emperor of these developments, warning him that the fate of the dynasty depended on his acceptance of the new order of affairs.

The city is now quiet. Perfect order prevails. So far as is known no foreigners were injured. All the ministers resigned with the exception of M. Protopopoff.

Jails Thrown Open.

Former Premier Sturmer, Premier Goltzke and the head of the secret police were arrested. The jails were thrown open. The headquarters of the secret police and several government buildings were burned.

Events leading up to the revolution began a week ago with street demonstrations of working men, who quit work as a protest against the shortage of bread. The first two days mounted patrols kept the crowds moving without resorting to violence. When ordered to fire on the people, they refused. Police were substituted and a battle occurred between them and the troops. Regiment after regiment joined the revolution and seized arsenals and other strategic points.

Emergence From Nightmare.

The city emerged from a week's nightmare of revolution and figuratively smiled under a brilliant flood of sunshine after the series of grey days ending with a snowstorm Wednesday evening. Planks were pulled down from windows long closed. Stores, banks and business establishments of every description reopened their doors for the resumption of ordinary activities, seemingly as confidence in the new temporary government gained in force. Newspapers, with the exception of revolutionary publications which sprang into life with the success of the revolt, had failed to appear.

With the reopening of bread, sugar and meat shops, lines of women with shopping bags and baskets, often extending to the length of a block, were formed to replenish stores exhausted by the long siege. The most phenomenal feature of the revolution has been the swift and orderly transition whereby the control of the city passed from the regime of the old government into the hands of its opponents.

At the same time all the prisons for political offenders were thrown open by the revolutionists and the prisoners marched out to join their emancipators.

The immediate occurrences leading to Monday developments began at 5 o'clock Sunday evening, when the men of the Volynsky regiment shot their officers and revolted, after receiving an order to fire upon striking working men in one of the factory districts.

"Tyrants Transformed Into Skunks"

The contemptible plan of malicious slander to injure the sale of CAMEL cigarettes has been exposed. Such an insult to the intelligence of Mr. Jobber, Mr. Dealer and Mr. Smoker has been rightfully resented. That great force of justice and fairness that the average man always upholds still prevails.

Some say those responsible for this malicious slander once forced their way by biting and clawing the trade. Since having their teeth and claws pulled out, and realizing their inability to longer continue biting and scratching, they put on gum shoes, transformed themselves from tyrants into skunks, and are fighting by using their fetid odor to destroy a great brand which has won the confidence of the public.

Now that the object of these low-down tactics of lying to injure the sale of CAMEL cigarettes is known to the trade and consumer, it is acting like a boomerang, and the hides of these skunks, as they are called by some, are now being pierced by their own malicious slander.

We know from facts in our possession whose employees are circulating the damaging falsehoods about CAMEL cigarettes.

Here's Why They Are Doing It

The purity and delightfulness of CAMEL cigarettes have made them the largest selling brand of cigarettes in the world. We sold over four billions more CAMELS in the year 1916 than we sold in the year 1915. Think of that wonderful increase—a gain of four billions in one year! We have already sold over one billion more CAMELS during 1917 than we sold for the corresponding period of 1916. These record-breaking increases were made unassisted by coupons or premiums—standing alone on purity and delightfulness. Our increase alone in the sale of CAMEL cigarettes is more than the total sales of any other brand of cigarettes for the period stated.

What more positive testimonial of the purity and delightfulness of CAMEL cigarettes could be furnished than this tremendous and steady increase in their sales? Smokers will not permit themselves to be prejudiced against CAMEL cigarettes, to give up a brand that has brought them so much pleasure, now that they know that only envy and jealousy were the foundation for the malicious falsehoods put into circulation for the purpose of injuring the sale of CAMEL cigarettes.

CAMEL cigarettes are pure and they are delightful. We invite comparison with any cigarette in the world, at any price, and welcome fair and aboveboard competition from any manufacturer.

COCONUT CUSTARD PIE
1 can of Baker's Fresh Grated Coconut; 1/2 cupful of sugar; pinch of salt; 1/2 cupful of milk; 2 eggs.

Beat eggs, milk, sugar and salt together; add can of coconut; pour into pie tin lined with pie crust. Bake in moderate oven on bottom rack thirty to thirty-five minutes, or until set. Try with silver knife; if knife comes out dry the pie is done; if the custard and coconut separate it has baked too long. This fills a seven-inch pie of regular depth. The crust is made as follows:

Sift one cupful of flour, pinch of salt into bowl; add two level table-spoonfuls of pure lard (or lardine) until well mixed; add enough cold water to hold together. The less water and handling the better the crust will be. Roll out on floured board. This will make a high edge on the pie.

P. S. Pastry flour is best.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST DESCRIPTIVE ORGANIST

By the great critics of two continents, Gatty Sellars, concert organist of the Queen's Hall and Crystal Palace Music Festival, London, England, who plays here on Wednesday evening, March 21, at the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Epworth League, has been acclaimed the world's greatest descriptive organist. One writer put it succinctly when he said: "What Paderewski is to the piano, Gatty Sellars is to the organ, and it will be a musical event of the highest importance to hear the Paderewski of the organ." Even those who are not musically inclined are held spellbound, as they would be at an intense drama, by his marvelously realistic rendition of "A Storm in the Alps," the lightning, thunder, rain and wind sounding as in real life, or "The Russian Patrol," by Rubenstein where the realistic sounds of tramping, struggling troops are so life-like that one critic accused Mr. Sellars of carrying a company of men with him to make the sound of tramping behind the organ. Music lovers will be enchanted when they hear the world-famed artist in classical selections by the great masters—from Bach and Wagner to Sir Edward Elgar and Gatty Sellars himself, who is one of England's foremost composers. Mr. Sellars uses a set of Cathedral Chimes with the organ. The same program will be given which has delighted audiences averaging from five to ten thousand people in such auditoriums as Queen's Hall and Crystal Palace, London, or the Auditorium, Los Angeles, or the Mormon Tabernacle, Salt Lake City. It is not surprising that there is a very large demand for tickets. The demand is so great that those who do not buy their tickets early may miss the greatest treat in years. Chalmers 7-Passenger Touring Car
Price $1350 Detroit

Choose a Chalmers as You Do a Watch

Compare two watches. They may look exactly alike. They may be equal in diameter and thickness. They may weigh the same. Perhaps your eye can't distinguish any difference between the gold in the two. One may seem to keep as good time as the other.

Big Differences There

Yet there may be a vast difference. One may be a Tiffany Swiss and the other a non-descript.

If you trust only to an off hand examination you may make a bad mistake in your choice.

True of Automobiles

The same is true of automobiles. Some other car may closely resemble a Chalmers. It may weigh about the same. Have about the same wheel base. The paint may look more or less alike—at first glance.

Yet there may be a vast difference. Differences you can discover only by the closest scrutiny and comparison.

Go Deep

If you are to get the correct idea of the Chalmers, you must go beneath the surface. There the big, important differences lie. Differences in materials. Differences in methods of building. Differences in quality of workmanship.

To look only at the exterior of the Chalmers you wouldn't discover that the gears and shafts of the transmission are of crucible nickel steel, case hardened and carefully heat treated.

Solid One-Piece Shaft

You wouldn't discover that the crankshaft is a single sturdy shaft of drop-forged heat-treated carbon steel.

Nor would you discover that the Chalmers pistons are die cast from Lynite, a special aluminum alloy, and weigh only 12 1/2 ounces each.

Deep-Lying Differences

To glance at the body you wouldn't realize that the body frame is built with such great care from select ash. That this is covered by one-piece, welded sheet steel. Nor that the springs in the upholstery are of an extraordinary spring steel. Nor that the frame of the chassis is of carbon steel, 5 inches deep and 1 1/2 of an inch thick. With flanges 2 1/4 inches wide. And with three strong cross members and reinforcing plates.

Be Deliberate

So when you examine the Chalmers don't look hastily. That's unfair to the car and unfair to yourself.

Some things you don't realize when you glance at the 7-passenger Chalmers:

12 1/2-ounce Lynite pistons.
Crankshaft balanced while in motion.
Cylinders and crank case cast in a unit.
Timken axles—built to Chalmers design.
Economical intake manifold.
Chrome nickel driving shaft.
Nickel steel differential gears heat-treated to secure hardness and toughness.
And many other important points of superiority.

All of the above means quality—the kind of quality you need in the car you buy, and the kind of quality you GET in the Chalmers.
